

SPEZIALE AND MCCOOK LIFELONG LEARNER SCHOLARSHIP

Application Form

A/CAPA offers an annual scholarship program for eligible members who will be attending or are currently attending an Associate's or Bachelor's degree program in an accredited school or university. Up to two scholarships of $1000 will be awarded in a payment directly to the awardee's post-secondary institution.

The scholarship committee will review candidate applications and make recommendations to the A/CAPA board for approval.

A completed application and all accompanying materials, as listed below, are required in order to be considered for a scholarship.

Eligibility:

- Applicant is a paid active member of A/CAPA
- Currently employed in a PA K-12 educational entity, performing Child Accounting/Attendance or related duties
- Enrolling in or already enrolled in an Associate or Bachelor's degree program at an accredited school or university

Applicant must provide the following:

- Completed application, including essay
- Letter of reference from principal or superintendent
- Copy of current transcript or acceptance letter
- Photograph for use in announcements/website

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.

Please note that recipient name and photo may be used on the A/CAPA website and in press announcements.

Scholarship recipients will be asked to furnish a copy of their tuition invoice. Funds will be paid directly to the accredited school or university.

All applications should be returned by October 1, 2024 to Diane Meck via email: dmeck23@gmail.com
